Description
Kerem: About the translation, sometimes it's very hard to translate this way. I mean, in the panel sometimes there comes a single word but you need to see it in the paragraph/context to make an appropriate translation. Sometimes I thought my translation might be wrong, but I just went on. I don't know a possible solution to this issue (add context to each word being translated?? How?). A workaround can be to review the translated interface later by the translator, to see that everything fits.
