Hi Roberto,

any advance with that?

I'm reordering/translating the home page, and the translation of this is the only pending:

<http://kune.ourproject.org/es>

If you don't have time, don't worry, I can deal with this issue.

Sorry very much about this...

Maybe I had the time, but I didn't understand what the task is all about and forgotten to ask for help. I've seen other tickets and I wouldn't be able to accomplish them also with the information given there, so it would be better to drop it now.

Thank you for your patience. You could take over this issue.

Regards.

I'm not sure if I properly get the present issue. In any case, I'd like to point out that some translations of the intro can be found in this document:

<http://kune.cc/#!kune.docs.12.9>

They would be much more useful on the website than in that document.
